

MRS. BARBARA JOHNSON

Mrs. Barbara Foreman Johnson, forty-six, widow of Edward Johnson, 24 South Mulberry street, was taken ill and died suddenly at 2:30 P. M. yesterday at her home. Dr. A. V. Walter, county coroner, investigated and issued a verdict of death due to a heart attack.

Dr. Walter said that Mrs. Johnson roomed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stotz. Mrs. Johnson complained of being ill and Mrs. Stotz summoned Dr. L. M. Shear but the victim was dead when he arrived.

She was employed as a waitress at Hildy's cafe.

She was born at Rohrerstown, daughter of George C. and Lizzie Steinfelt Foreman, of Columbia. Her parents survive and the following brothers and sisters: Miss Clara Foreman, Lancaster; Ralph and Irvin Foreman, at home; Benjamin, Columbia, R. D. 1; Oscar Foreman, Columbia, and Mrs. Joseph Hebble, Atlanta, Ga.
